KLINGON FACTIOD:

Whereas a human apologetically offers "Well, I'm only human..." the Klingon proudly proclaims "I am Klingon!"

Maximum Overkill is printed semi monthly for the entertainment purposes of the crew of the Klingon Assault Group (KAG) chapter, the IKV Black Demon. Current price for the news letter is $12 to get you 6 issues. By sending in art, stories, reports, or anything to be printed, we assume you are giving permission for print unless written otherwise.

Star Trek, Star Trek: The Next Generation, Star Trek: Deep Space Nine, Star Trek: Voyager, Star Trek: Lollapalooza, and the Star Trek movies are all exclusive properties of big brother: Paramount/VIACOM. Infringement on these rights will incur the wrath of Guido the Exterminator, Paramount's trademark violations expert.

No infringement is meant on our part. Not too sure about those shift-eyed Feddies though.

FROM THE CAP'N

nuqneH. I hope the holidays are going well for you all. 1996 has been a great year for us, possibly the best one so far. Our roster is up to 21 official crew members, 4 Honorary crew members, and 1 observational member. Oh and don't forget that one of those members has started a listening post up in Denton. I want to let you all know that you guys and gals have been a blast to hang out with. Conventions, parties with the Feddies, or just going out to do anything has been the best!

1997 will mark the 5th year the IKV Black Demon has been in the DFW area. We'll be holding our yearly party around April 19th-20th. More to come on that since we need to discuss locations to rent or crash. I never would have thought that we would have lasted this long seeing that most of us were barely old enough to drive. We have gotten flack over the years for not doing what the normal chapters do, but you know what? We've had fun doing what we do!

There are a few conventions that are coming up that we need to discuss. Some of these are comic-cons, but I have heard there is possibly a Creation-Con coming. Hopefully it won't be up in Plano this year. When I get more info sent in, I'll post it in the next issue.

So how am I making this issue? Well, I want to thank my art director to all me to come into the lab between classes to work on this. I was hoping this wouldn't be a pain in the ass to do every other month, but there is a bright side. I get to visit all you guys down in the 'Can. The other bright side is that I just got hired on with a start up sign shop. This time it's a franchise, so I know it won't go under anytime soon. We go into corporate training soon after the holidays. The good news is that I'm getting a full copy of the art program to make signs with. The art program is similar to the one I used in college (just on a PC and a different company). So what does that mean for the newsletter?

That means that I'll get better access to scanners and clip art I can use for the layouts. If you haven't noticed over the past few issues, I've found a treasure trove of old clip art at the college and a Star Trek few coloring books (on loan from Warg). This also means I can do them during my lunch break until I can buy a new computer that will run this program.

I am also keeping the reminder about my address change in this issue. I received a few letters from Admiral Klag, the USS Dragonstarr, and the IKV Kontagion that the Post Office placed the "yellow sticker" on about address change. I have already alerted those guys about the change. But I have decided to keep it in this issue and maybe the next just so that a few of our "out-of-towners" see it.

See you all at the next meeting!!

BEER TASTIN'

January 26 6PM

Since this is also Super Bowl XXXI, I figured that many of you would like to gather and have the game on, or play a game of Shadow Run. Let's try something new, lets each pick up some beer we have newer tried before. Steve and I have done this from time to time. Since we all like beer, I figured this would be a good change to hang out and try some new brews. I'm offering the gathering over at my new casa. Give me a call (info to the left) or email me at Kahnshar@aol.com

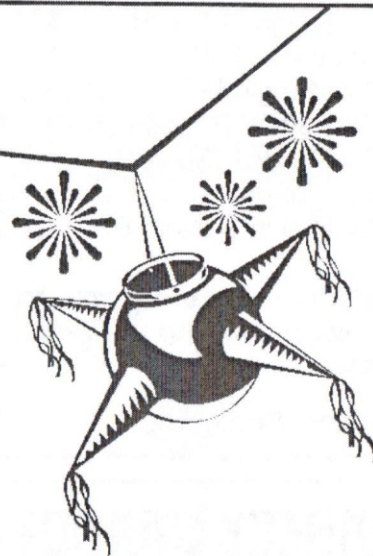

Remember, no "big three" (Miller, Coors, Bud). Get only beers from microbrew or the UK

REGULAN BLOODWORM

REGULUS II

The Regulan bloodworm is soft and shapeless, with its circulatory system clearly visible through its whitish, translucent skin. As a protective body insulating against sun and heat, it regurgitates a sticky mucus which emits an extremely powerful and unpleasant odor. Swarming by the thousands in shady cracks and crevasses, the bloodworms, like the Terran leech, attach themselves to their hosts through the use of four mouths located at the ends of mobile tentacles. The smaller variety may be swallowed in drinking water, but because they are aerobic they can survive only if they fasten themselves to the inside of the host's mouth or esophagus.

ATTENTION KLINGONS!! DESTROY THE EMPIRE TO SAVE IT BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!!!

Brother Klingons, have you noticed that our once glorious Empire has become a cesspool? Indeed, haven't you noticed that fandom in general has become one vast sick joke? Look at our so-called "leaders". Haven't you wondered how these geebs wound up in control? Making you worry about their power games, their "rank" and "fleet organization" bull? This is because incompetence, like scum, rises to the top. You joined fandom for the fun-- now it's a living hell, and you are trapped in it. You wanted to be creative and original --now, you jump through their hoops on command to get those precious "points" to gain "status" in "their" club. You became Klingon to escape the pink fangeeks running STARFLEET-- only to find yourself enthralled to Klingeeks who are far worse than you ever imagined. You thought fandom was just a hobby. But a vast, insidious KONSPIRACY of bureau creeps and SMOF-scum has made it a (b)anal way of life-- with them in the Big House and you in the Outhouse!!

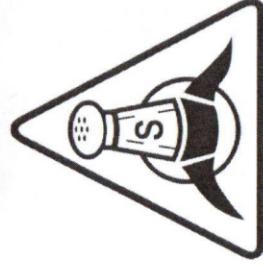

FANDOM FOR THE STRONG, THE FREE, AND THE INSANE!!!

You don't have to be the boot in their game of Monopoly. Play your own game instead. A new game, in which you get back the fun you joined fandom for in the first place. Gamble on your previously untapped reserves of luck instantly by turning to the one Klingon who can guide you through the rules of the game with no rules. The Galactic Game master himself -- K'Bob. K'Bob comes in this dark time on a divine mission; not to halt the degeneracy of the Klingon Empire but ACCELERATE IT!!! Instead of the whiny slave morality of the Black Fleet. K'Bob offers up a wild anarchistic religion for all Klingons -- THE ULTIMATELY VICTORIOUS CHURCH OF THE SUBKLIN. This is the only true church for warriors, FOR IT OFFERS MAXIMUM GLORY FOR MINIMUM EFFORT, as well as new, challenging and fun ways to destroy one's enemies. SubKlin pursue their Klingon Creativity and glory to the utmost, with honor conferred to those who do --or cleverly trick others into doing for them-- instead of the parasites who rule. K'Bob can lead us to victory in this divine mission because, like his human counterpart, he has a direct deal with the alien space god jH'ovQha-one, and he is also the living embodiment of SLAQ. SLAQ cannot be defined, but it is the quality which makes fun in fandom possible. Unfortunately, the SMOFscum, the Imperial Fleet weenies, the PinkFeds and KlinPinks, have stolen much of it from the rest of us --BECAUSE WE ALLOWED IT TO BE STOLEN WHEN WE ACCEPTED THE "RULE" OF SELF-APPOINTED MAXIMUM LEADERS AND FLEET LEADERS. Creatures of such blindness and venality that their egotistical belief in their power makes them think they have the right to persecute anyone who threatens their delusion world and stamp out any vestige of any originality and independence. They want fandom as a vast empire-of-sheep to be perpetually screwed from behind, rather than the fun hobby it's supposed to be. These vermin and their slavish dupes are the Conspiracy threatening to destroy the Klingon soul --AND THEY CONTROL THE EMPIRE!!! But the growing legions of K'Bob's SubKlin are rising in revolt against this (b)anal dictatorship. And like true Klingon warriors, we will take slaQ --as is our due. This is the first of the Church's two Supreme Credos : THE SUBKLIN WILL TAKE BACK OUR SLAQ! The other is : IF ORGANIZED FANDOM IS A BUST, THE ONLY SANE RESPONSE... IS DISORGANIZED FANDOM!!!!

MAKING CHAOS OUR PLAYTHING!!!

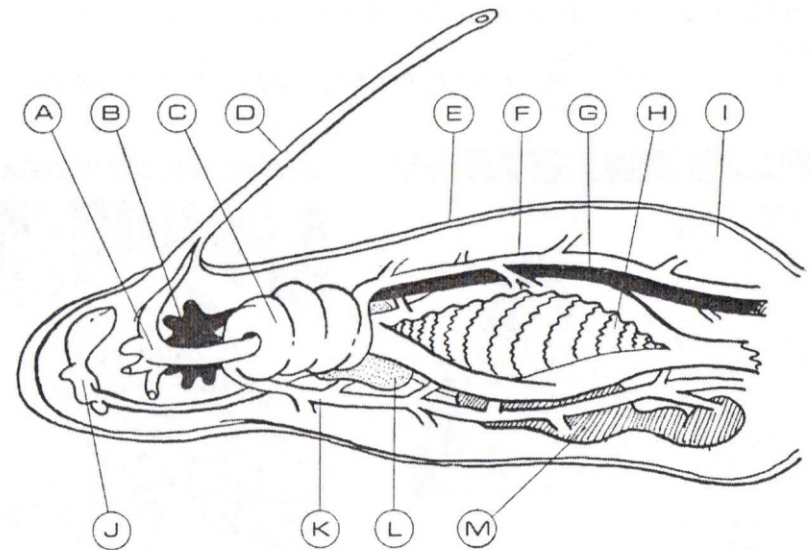

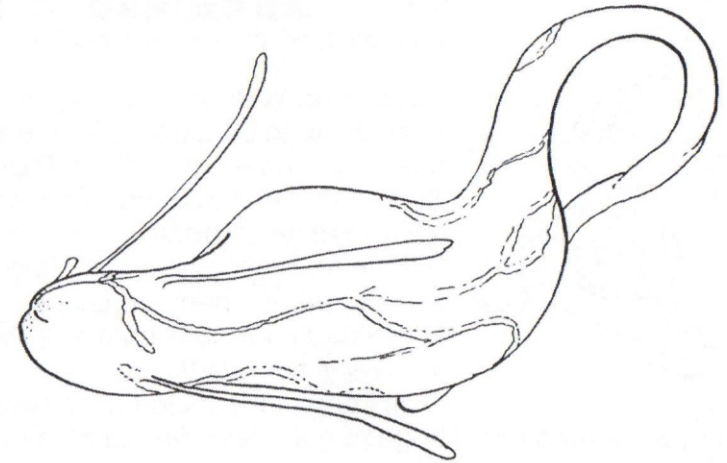

You too can destroy cliques, set SMOF's at each others throats, and learn to think for yourself --with our help. Write to the email below and find out where to send a SASE and you will get a neat, slaQ filled pamphlet with tips on how to remake reality in your own image, make the Pinks and Fangeeks play your game instead of you playing theirs. Claim "undeserved" glories and rank for yourself in the new, wild and woolly Klingon Empire you help create. And if you are exceptionally, stupidly lucky, you might make something at it --but only if your EXPLOITATION Powers are sufficiently developed (not the case in most, sad to say). So what are you waiting for!? REPENT! DESERT THE FLEET! SLAQ OFF!!!! Rally to the glorious banner of K'Bob in the anti-clique-in-a-clique-ridden-fandom. And if the SMOF-scum don't like it, so what?!!! In the face of their hatred you have the Church's Divine Declaration :

SCREW 'EM IF THEY CAN'T TAKE A JOKE!!!

DEAD AIR

"In space, no one can hear you fart... except us."

Warg here. Well, after a long thought I have decided on a name for the listening post. The name will be the ILP Black Staff. I named it after the black staff my necromancer character carried in D&D. I like the term "Dead Air" for this column, it was the perfect name to choose. Thanks to the Cap'n for hooking me up with some awesome art!

The semester should be starting by the time you all read this. I hope to get a few fliers printed up soon to post around campus. I'm thinking that I may just get an apartment instead of living on campus. If this is the case, you guys will have a place to crash when ya'll are up. I've already checked out a few dive clubs for us to hit up while you are in town.

Well for the ILP Black Staff, post operator Warg, singing off.

(Drink)

I recently picked up a book at a used book shop that I think you all would enjoy reading. The book is called "What, When, Where and How to Drink" by Richard L. & David Myers William. The quote on the back by Sherman Billingsly (whoever he is) says:

"The title of this book is What, When, Where and How to Drink, and I like both the title and the idea it expresses. There have been plenty of manuals on the art of mixing drinks (an art not slighted in this book, incidentally), but not enough books on the equally important art of drinking. The theme of this book is that drinking, for those who drink at all, is a part of daily life, not apart from it, and the contents are sensibly related to the real-life situations in which you do your buying and drinking of liquor. The book will certainly make you more knowledgeable about all the varieties of enjoyment that liquor, properly used, can add to your life."

I read through this book and I think every warrior needs to look for a copy. This book is not only filled with valuable info in stocking a home bar, but also teaches you how to enjoy your alcohol with various foods. Not to mention your training in enjoying your drinks and not just getting blitzed and wake up in the tub (been there). These days cocktails are looked down at as "girly drinks", and in my NSHO, that needs to change. We need to look at the drinks our grandfathers enjoyed. Pick up this book, and it will teach you how to make classics like the, the Mai-Tai, Tom Collins, or an Old Fashion (my favorite).

I picked up a copy for about 25 cents, but you can check Half-Priced books for a copy. Check the cooking section.

THE LAST PAGE

Mark your calendars for April 19th-20th. The IKV Black Demon will be holding it's 5th anniversary party. The venue is pretty open, if anyone wants to suggest a place we haven't gone to or would like to revisit, please voice your opinion at the next meeting. I am honestly up for anything. If you guys would rather keep it low-key and just hang out, let us know as well. If you cannot meet at one of the two meetings places call or email me (info on page 4).

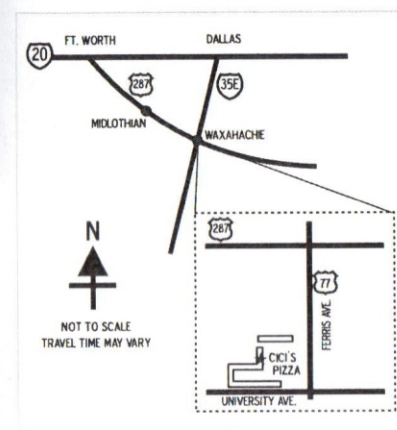

Places to think over:

- Q-City
- Arcade (which mall?)
- Panchos Mexican Buffett (it will be all of our birthdays)
- Six Flags
- Camp out (location?)

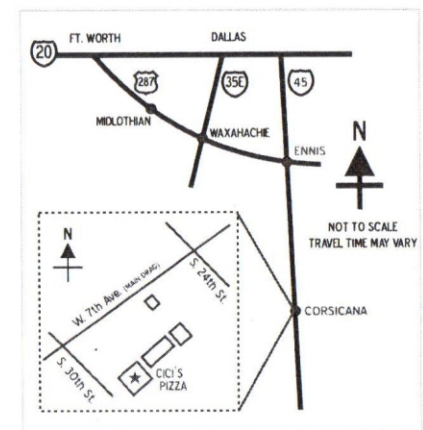

If the 'Can members cannot make any of these proposed places, we can discuss at the next meeting where you all would like to meet. This is another reason why I decided to split the party up into two days that way if some of you can't make it for one, but the other, then noone misses the fun.

MEETING LOCATIONS

Every Third Sunday 2-4pm.

Every Fourth Sunday 2-4pm.
